Description

The Bird in Hand is the Original ThamesMog noggin venue from the time the centre started in 1970 now used on the first Thursday of each month. Meet from about 7pm onwards; We are usually in the room to the right of the Bar.

The Bird In Hand is a delightful 14th Century Country Inn with a history that spans 600 years. When you step through our doors you catch a glimpse of the past... and walk in the footsteps of King George III.

Located in Berkshire, just outside London, between Maidenhead and Reading near Twyford, it offers easy access to the big city via the M4 or M40 as well as many other local places of interest and beauty such as Windsor, the Cotswolds and Henley on Thames.
